

Regarding use by persons who have tattoos

Thank you for using Izu Akazawa Onsenkyo.

From February 1, 2025, we will be restricting use by persons who have tattoos.

Details of each facility are below.

■ Akazawa Day Spa/Akazawa Spa

Persons who have tattoos (including body paint) will be refused entry.

However, unless permitted by the standards set by our hotel.

Only guests with tattoos that can be covered with up to two cover stickers designated by our hotel (11cm x 20cm, sale for 160 yen each) and who apply the cover stickers during their stay will be allowed entry.

■ Akazawa Onsen Hotel/Akazawa Guest House/Akazawa Training Camp

Persons who have with tattoos (including body paint) will be refused entry to the large public bath.

However, unless permitted by the standards set by our hotel.

Only guests with tattoos that can be covered with up to two of our designated cover stickers (11cm x 20cm, sale for 160 yen each) and who can apply a cover sticker during their stay can enter the facility.

■ Akazawa Fitness Club/Akazawa Bowl

Tattoos (including body paint) will be refused entry.

However, this does not include cases where they are approved according to the standards set by our facility.

Only guests with tattoos that can be covered with up to two of our designated cover stickers (11cm x 20cm, sale for 160 yen each) and who can apply a cover sticker during their stay can enter the facility.

*You can enter the fitness club and Akazawa Bowl as long as your tattoos are not exposed.

However, you will not be able to use the locker rooms or shower rooms.

- If you enter the facility without applying a cover sticker, you will be asked to leave immediately.
- We ask that you use the cover seal not only in the large baths, but throughout your stay at all facilities in Izu Akazawa Onsenkyo.
- If your size exceeds the cover seal or if you refuse to use the cover seal, you will be strictly refused use of the facilities.

Izu Akazawa Onsenkyo will continue to strive to provide the best hospitality to all our guests.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation so that all our guests can have a safe and comfortable stay.
